

It is illegal to make unauthorised copies of this copyright music.

B:3

The Song of Twilight

from Piano Pieces for Children

Yoshinao Nakada
(1923–2000)

Quietly ♩ = 66

p (2nd time: pp)

mf

p

1. 2. rit.

The Japanese composer Yoshinao Nakada has written many works for young players. ‘The Song of Twilight’ is from his Piano Pieces for Children (こどものピアノ曲 Kodomo no piano kyoku), a collection of 17 pieces written in 1955 and subsequently released in the US under the title Japanese Festival. Although the composer’s metronome mark is ♩ = 66, students may prefer a slightly slower tempo, for example ♩ = c.60.

In the exam, the repeat should be played.

© 1976 by Ongaku No Tomo Sha Corp.
International copyright secured. Kagurazaka 6–30, Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo, Japan.